

"A Dollar Saved is Two Earned"
THE AMERICAN WANT ADS.
Tell You Where to Earn and How to SAVE DOLLARS—Read Them!

COAL STRIKE ON, ALL ANTHRACITE MINES CLOSED

Court Proceedings Delayed by Mrs. Cooper's Illness; WOMAN INSISTS TRIAL GO ON

ALICE COOPER.
Wife of a well-to-do blacksmith. Accused of killing "Charlie" Northey, a boy blacksmith apprentice, who was in love with her.
Scene—A room in her own home.
Weapon—A revolver.
No one witnessed the act.
He was about to leave her.
Her defence—A claim of suicide.

Two absolutely different types of women who have figured in remarkably similar trials for murder.

UNEARTH PLOT TO KILL SPAIN'S ROYAL FAMILY

ANARCHISTS PLANNED TO ASSASSINATE ALFONSO, DOWAGER QUEEN AND INFANTA.
MADRID, April 2.—The Spanish authorities have discovered an anarchist plot at Lohrie, twenty miles from Madrid, the notorious centre of the Black Hand, to assassinate the royal family in the visit of King Alfonso, the Dowager Queen Christina and the Infanta, the King's daughter, to the city of Lohrie, to be held on the 10th of the month.
The authorities discovered the plot through the efforts of a Spanish agent, who had been in the city for some time, and who had been in contact with the anarchist leaders.
The plot was discovered through the efforts of a Spanish agent, who had been in the city for some time, and who had been in contact with the anarchist leaders.

NAN PATTERSON.
A divorced chorus girl. Tried for killing "Cesar" Young, a bookmaker, who had been in love with her.
Scene—A hansom cab.
Victim was about to leave her.
No one witnessed the act.
Her defence—Claim of suicide.

KISSED PICTURE SHOT HIMSELF

Special to the Boston American.
WILKESBARRE, April 2.—"My dear Mr. Ford: Not being able to kiss you good-bye, I kissed your picture on the wall and said goodbye forever. Ma will tell you more. Forgive me for this rash act. I must go."
Leaving this note on his desk, Percy E. Givens, a prominent miller and post office manufacturer, committed suicide by shooting at his office on Front street. His body was found early to-day. Mr. Givens cannot explain his husband's act. He had been acting strangely of late.

FIND DRIVER DEAD ON COAL WAGON
A coal train was discovered by passengers near the corner of River and Fremont streets, Cambridge, at 8:45 a. m. to-day, with the driver, James Taylor of Orange, Mass., dead on the engine. The cause of death was not known.

MINES CLOSED

Colliery Whistles Blew in Vain for Work To-day, and Mines Are Deserted Save for Caretakers—Pennsylvania Mounted Police in the Field—Half Million Men Involved.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 2.—The great coal strike, which will affect 500,000 men, 175,000 of whom are in this anthracite region, is on.
When the whistles at the various collieries blew to-day not a man reported for work except those who were permitted to keep the mines in repair. There has been no disorder.
SHAMOKIN, Pa., April 2.—More than 20,000 miners here remained away from the mines to-day in response to President John Mitchell's order. Not one colliery in this part of the ninth United Mine Workers' district is in operation.
PHILADELPHIA, March 2.—All of the anthracite mines of the Pennsylvania Railroad have closed for the day.
WYOMING, Pa., March 2.—Troop B, of the Pennsylvania Mounted State Police, a body organized for mine purposes, came here to-day from Wilkesbarre and went into their permanent barracks near the centre of the Wyoming mining district.
The mounted police are armed with regulation police sticks about thirty inches long, carried at their saddles, and the regulation army revolver. They are mounted on Texas Bronchos.

TAMAQUA, Pa., April 2.—The whistles of all the collieries of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company in the Panther Valley were blown to-day, but not a mine worker or breaker hand reported for duty. The entire valley is quiet.
HALF MILLION MEN INVOLVED IN BIG STRIKE
NEW YORK, April 2.—The great coal strike, involving more than 500,000 men, 175,000 of whom are in this anthracite region of Pennsylvania, is on.
The shutdown of the big collieries was accompanied by no demonstration of any kind, but there was a quiet determination manifested by the men that prolonged one of the bitterest struggles ever seen in the labor world unless the final conference to be held in New York to-morrow results differently than is expected.
None of the 165,000 men of the Pennsylvania anthracite coal area attempted to go to work except those who were called to do so—pumpers, engineers, firemen and electricians.
The pickets reported that no strike-breakers were in an appearance.
The operators are making coal piles on their properties, but so far but few attempts have been made to transport the coal to the market.
The miners declare that such precautions are unnecessary as they, themselves, will see to it that the property is not molested by any one.

MINERS DETERMINED.
Most of the miners regard the strike as a matter of life or death.
None of them believe that it will end to-morrow.
Continued on Page 4, Column 1.

Begin To-day to Read the New $100 Prize Story on Page 9
DON'T fail to start the first chapter of Jacques Futrelle's fascinating new story, "The Mystery of the Ace of Hearts." It begins to-day on Page 9 of the BOSTON AMERICAN. A chapter will be printed every day until Friday. On Saturday you have a chance to win a part of the $100 in prizes by suggesting the best ending of the story.
Whet Up Your Wits! Get Busy!

MORAN ATTACKS GRAND JURY AND LEGISLATURE

Speaking before the Committee on Judiciary to-day, Mr. Moran attacked the grand jury and the legislature.
He said that the grand jury was a body of men who were not qualified to judge the merits of the evidence presented to them.
He said that the legislature was a body of men who were not qualified to make laws.
He said that the grand jury and the legislature were both corrupt and inefficient.

Friends of Bay State President Now Working for Support of Solid New England.

CAUGHT PEEPER IN LONG CHASE

THE ORIGINAL
WILSON BROS.

WATCHMAKERS

Jewellers, moved across the street from our old store next to the Big Tea Kettle, 85 Court St. Old customers tell our friends, "Wilson's has been established in the Hanoir at 85 Court St. since 1880."

COMM. 3-10-12

resident Now Working for d New England.

WELSH—In South Boston, March 11, 1908, M. Margaret M., beloved wife of William H. Welsh, 20 yrs., 10 mos.

Funeral from her late residence, 156 K. st., Monday, April 2, at 9 a. m., to High Mass at the Gate of Heaven Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends kindly invited to attend.

WYROWE—In Somerville, March 20, Mary, wife of Joseph Wyrowe, 53 yrs.

Funeral from her late residence, 3 Merriam av., Monday, April 2, at 9 a. m., and at St. Vincent's Church at 9 o'clock.

LARGEST LOST—Open evenings, WILLIAM A. LANG, 308 Washington st., Tur.; telephone.

MONEY TO LOAN.

START RIGHT.

IF small folk know you, come and talk it over with me. We will be able to help you; if you need you nothing to find out; we loan reasonable amounts to reliable married people at terms driving competition. We can combine with you home on plan, household goods and other personal property for loans at Water st., rooms 500-210-311.

MONEY TO LOAN on furniture and pianos at low rates, MARTIN, 181 Tremont.

NOTE.—If you want to sell your business this is the office that can do it. STATE OF MAINE OFFICE, 763 Washington st., Boston.

APPLETON ST.—10 rooms, rent $25, well fur.

37 EAST SPRINGFIELD ST.—Furnished as shown. Light on bathroom floor, 2 closets, h. & c. water, hot and cold.
40 UNION PARK ST.—Furnished rooms, housekeeping, cooking stove, gas appliances reasonable.
50 APPLETON ST.—Rooms by day or week; out of town people accommodated. Phone 1463-3. Tremont.
52 APPLETON ST.—Finely furnished, cared for rooms, by the day.
67 HEVERE ST.—2 rooms for h. housekeeping, with range, h. & c. water, $3.50, square room $2.50.

DETECTIVES.
National Detective Agency,
LICENSED and bonded. Room 313, Colonial bldg.
Suits Oxford St. Attorneys' advice free.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.
$1.00 A WEEK
PAYS for thorough training as stenographer at FRANKLIN ACADEMY, 128 Brighton St.

MUSIC.
BOSTON MUSICIANS' PROTECTIVE ASSO-CIATION—Lovers, Men, & Women of Music
Room 44 Federal St.

There is not a high grade maker of Pianos who is not represented in this week's sale. A greater variety than in any sale for months. Every purchaser thanked his or her lucky stars at last week's sale. Many swell uprights went for

Marshall & Wendell, New York—Kranich & Bach, New York—Kingsbury, Chicago—Woodbury, Leominster—Geo. H. Cox, New York—Jacob H. Brown, New York. People familiar with these makes will know that they are excellent pianos in every respect. They are sold at a less price than New England makes, and because of this in New

Barter = Exchange
ONE CENT A WORD.

TYPEWRITERS.
TAYLOR'S TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE, 216
Dorchester street, corner Franklin, Boston; telephone 5810 Main. Typewriters, bought, sold, re-changed, rented and repaired.
THE TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE has the largest and best stock of machines at the lowest prices.
(in Bromfield) st.

DIAMONDS AND JEWELRY.

$18 WALTHAM WATCH, $7.99
$35 WALTHAM watch, 14K gold case, $29.95
Ladies' $21 gold watches, $19.75; all kinds of jewelry repaired. A. H. GROVER, 125 Washington

2-ACHE farm, 8-room house, small stable, 3 hectares, between 50 and 100 fruit trees, within 5 minutes of station only $2,000. H. E. HOL-BROOK & CO., 18 Trenchard st., Montreal.

— WHEN YOU SEE photo at our office of 3-acre village estate, I'll seem incredible to you that we can sell it for $1,000. Best 2 1/2-acre

Where to Dine

WANTED.

OLD feather beds wanted, highest price paid.
NEW ENGLAND FEATHER CO., 30 West 3d,
St. Charles.

OLD feather beds bought, highest cash paid.
AMERICAN FEATHER CO., 17 Fair St., Boston.

THE BALLROOM.

PROP. BLYE, 446 Tremont st.—12 lessons ($ private, 8 class $3, Call evenings, 7 to 9.

SEWING MACHINES.

200 HUNGER, good as new for $5, at $6 Was $10. See, near Hull's lunch room.

MAINS PRING, 30c., just in waiting, warranted
2 years; cleaned, 50c. ALBERTS, 229 Tremont st.
MARBLE cutters and fitters. Apply to SUPT.,
No. 782 Congress st.

STEADY sober man as compositor in printing dept. of box factory; work steady, chiefly display and stone work; write with experience and wages

SHOE MANUFACTURERS—Have the right man in your cutting room, that have experience and talent, and you will compete with the largest concerns in the world and get a big slice of their business. I have many years' experience and the last 7 years been assistant foreman in one of the world's largest shoe factories. List of recommendations. References. N 232

SITUATION wanted on gentleman's place by an all-round American; reliable, vigorous, industrious, temperate, references. N 232, Boston American.

SALESMAN, hustler, wants position; acquainted

FARMS.
WOUBURN FARM for sale—10-acre crop house, less 1 1/2 mile out; barn 30x40; 10-room house;
cars 5 minutes. BYRON BRIGHAM, trustee,
15 New Boston st.

AUTOMOBILES.
SPOT CASH paid for second-hand automobiles;
any description. BROCKTON MOTOR EX-CHANGE, Brockton, Mass.

LOST AND FOUND.
LOST—March 31, in Empire Theatre, roll of musical tape music, letters G. DREW, of Auburn Mass., Craytonville, Reward.

GIRL for general housework, three in family; this is easy position. Apply, with references, to MRS. W. W. HANSEN, 17 North Washington st., Boston.

WANTED—Bright women to take charge of local territory for manufacturer; also travelling managers; salary to start $15.00.

MARIE LE NORMAND, PALMIST.
228 Tremont st., near Hotel Touraine.
A. ZABOLA tells your name and all you want to know for 50c.; cut this out. 283 Tremont st.
MME. MAY, card reader, tells past, present, future. 139 1/2 Elliot st., room 18, turn to left.
MISS M. E. MOULTON, Card Reader, 1400
Washington st., suite 1.
MADAM BHANNON, colored palmist. 33 Winchester st., off Federal st., from 10 to 8.
MRS. C. MCCLARE, Astro. Mgr. 415 Columbia st., Suite 10, 10 to 8.
MISS MARY C. CARDEN, tells all.

INFORMATION WANTED.
NOTICE—Discontinue strictly private, advice free: short wall, troubles, etc.; lowest fee, easily paid; see only office. LAWTER CHAR. C. ALLEN, 47 Court st., room 11, Boston.

WOMEN'S SPECIALTIES.
BABY CARRIAGE, 2nd-hand, wheels re-limed, carriage parts, carriages repaired, parasols, lawn mowers, etc. W. J. REILLY & CO., 85 Portland st.

TALKING MACHINES.
NEW IMPROVED DIAPHRAM for the Vi-tor-trol and her amplifier, new, recently dated; all the latest records, 1000 songs, 1000 songs, 1000 songs; call; open every evening until 10. 2A Portland st.

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS COVERED FOR THE BOSTON AMERICAN BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS

JOE GANS' INVASION OF THE MIDDLEWEIGHT CLASS SHOWS THAT HE'S ANXIOUS TO FIGHT

GREY FIGHT CARDED AT COLLESA TONIGHT

MATTY BALDWIN AND KID GOODMAN, STAR LOCAL BOXERS, WILL BE OPPONENTS

There has not been a bout in the first where the result is so much in doubt as the match at Chelsea tonight, when Matty Baldwin and Kid Goodman get in the ring at the Lincoln A. C. to settle a little matter of supremacy with the latter.

The pair comes about the best there is in the local featherweight class in this section, and it is going to be a better fight than the regular fare, as both will enter the game out, and it is likely the full force of effort required there will be a supply of very weary fighters at the end of the clash.

May Go the Limit.

It may go the limit, but there will be many who would judge otherwise, knowing the way the two fighters will waste each other. Both are tired up for the hardest encounter in their career, and will be able to show all their power and skill in the battle.

Best Mills on Tap THIS WEEK

TONIGHT.
Matty Baldwin vs. Kid Goodman, Lincoln Club, Chelsea.
Terry Martin vs. Peter Sullivan, Augustus, Me.

WEDNESDAY.
A. A. U. national championship, San Francisco.

THURSDAY.
Sam Langford vs. Joe Jeanette, Lincoln Club, Chelsea.

FRIDAY.
A. A. U. national championship, San Francisco.

SATURDAY.
Tommy Ryan vs. Dave Barry, Hot Springs.

By Matty may have taken all the excitement out of the Norwegians.

On Thursday night, at the Lincoln A. C., the two fighters will meet in a bout which is expected to be one of the best of the season. The two fighters are both in excellent condition, and the match is expected to be a close one.

The two fighters are both in excellent condition, and the match is expected to be a close one.

THE BODY OF TENNESSEE GOVERNOR DEAD TODAY

COLLEGE SPORT AT CHARLESTON

NEW YORK, April 2.—Captain Palmer M. Potts, U. S. A., president and leader of the Tennessee Athletic Association, died today at Charleston, S. C., of a heart attack.

The body of the governor was found in a room at the hotel where he was staying. The cause of death is believed to be a heart attack.

FOOTBALL FATE OF BARBARA KNOWN TONIGHT

It is the opinion of those in a position to know that football will be given at Harvard next fall, under the new rules adopted by the intercollegiate rules committee.

The committee has decided that football will be given at Harvard next fall, under the new rules adopted by the intercollegiate rules committee.

With Joe Gans Still in the Fight Game DARE NOT REAL CHAMP

BY W. W. NAUGHTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Joe Gans is a man who has made a name for himself in the boxing world. He is a man who has made a name for himself in the boxing world.

he has fought like a Trojan, and his open display of his power and skill has made him a favorite with the fans. He is a man who has made a name for himself in the boxing world.

He is a man who has made a name for himself in the boxing world.

GANS AFTER KILIAN'S TITLE

BY TAD.

Joe Gans, the personal hero of both the lightweight and welterweight classes, is now out for the middleweight title. He is a man who has made a name for himself in the boxing world.

Notes of the Harness Horses.

A few changes in local harness races in the last few days have been noted. The races are now being held at the local track, and the results are as follows:

The races are now being held at the local track, and the results are as follows:

GOSSETT RECEIVED AT CAMP COLLINS

EX-CHAMPS INAUGURATE WEEK'S PRACTICE AT NEW ORLEANS TO-DAY

By Boston American Correspondent at the Team.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.—Jimmy Collins and his back of Boston American ball players have settled down here at the St. Charles for a week of lively work, preparing for their homecoming. The weather man doesn't put in an appearance accompanied by his favorite companion, rain.

Charles White Sox played the Pelicans four games and won them all, while the best of the Athletics, champions of the American League, could do so to win two out of four battles.

The White Sox played the Pelicans four games and won them all, while the best of the Athletics, champions of the American League, could do so to win two out of four battles.

Del' Covers Thirid for Red.

Jim Delahanty, who played for the Boston Nationals for two years, is moving the third week for the Red Sox, and is putting up a splendid exhibition. He is a man who has made a name for himself in the baseball world.

BROWNS WIN AGAIN. SHEPARD REINSTATED.

ST. LOUIS, April 2.—Despite the rain, the Browns won again today, defeating the Cardinals in a close game. The Browns are now leading the league in the National League.

The Browns won again today, defeating the Cardinals in a close game. The Browns are now leading the league in the National League.

DR. WEINSTEIN MEDICAL EXPERT

I CURE WHEN OTHERS FAIL

For years I have made a specialty of the study and cure of every form of men's diseases. My reputation as a medical expert is unquestioned, my square and honest dealings have won for me the highest esteem and confidence of my patients. Thousands of cured men can testify to the truth of this statement.

DR. HALLOCK'S FREE REMEDIES FOR MEN

DR. HALLOCK'S

1154 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Best American Daily Home

HOW A NOTED ENGLISH NOBLEWOMAN WOULD SET ABOUT TO SOLVE THE PROBLEM OF THE UNEMPLOYED

No Workman Ought to Be Idle While Society Needs the Things Which
He Is Able to Produce
By the Countess of Warwick

UNEMPLOYMENT is generally regarded as a social ailment or symptom of social disorder, the natural phase of civilization, the result of imbalances, imbalances, or imbalances in individuals.

To those holding the belief that unemployment is not an individual state, but a social condition, a slough of despond, into which individuals are passively long pushed. Personal conditions may decide which of two individuals shall be employed, but it does not decide how many shall be unemployed.

Indolence and vice are found in all classes, as much among the rich, if not more, as the poor. At least there is more excuse for the latter, who often drift into bad habits as the result of irregular work, low wages and miserable surroundings, which breed in them a fatalism and despair.

Many regard unemployment as solely the result of "bad trade." It is true, but it is not the only cause. It is the result of a social condition, even in times of "good trade."

Labour Needed

So long as one can dine at the most luxurious of restaurants it is difficult to believe that men cannot get work if they want it, especially if one considers that the demand for work is so great as to give them a fair chance.

No members of the building trades need really be unemployed, so far as the need for their labor goes. A large proportion of our people are housed, but the demand for the services of all workmen is not the same.

Therefore, real need for such labor is obvious. If it is equally noticeable that the laborer and householder are unemployed when there are 12 million children in London alone going to school in a poorly heated condition.

Obviously, then, there is urgent demand for the services of all workmen, but the spreading power to make that demand effective is lacking by the very classes that could most easily make it.

Wrong lines are not in the number affected, but in the fact that even a single willing worker can be deprived from employment while land, machinery and tools are lying idle and others are in urgent need of the things he is able to produce.

This evil is an inevitable result of land and capital being used to enable a few individuals to live at the expense of the many.

Those holding the belief that unemployment is not an individual state, but a social condition, a slough of despond, into which individuals are passively long pushed. Personal conditions may decide which of two individuals shall be employed, but it does not decide how many shall be unemployed.

Indolence and vice are found in all classes, as much among the rich, if not more, as the poor. At least there is more excuse for the latter, who often drift into bad habits as the result of irregular work, low wages and miserable surroundings, which breed in them a fatalism and despair.

Many regard unemployment as solely the result of "bad trade." It is true, but it is not the only cause. It is the result of a social condition, even in times of "good trade."

Indolence and vice are found in all classes, as much among the rich, if not more, as the poor. At least there is more excuse for the latter, who often drift into bad habits as the result of irregular work, low wages and miserable surroundings, which breed in them a fatalism and despair.

Many regard unemployment as solely the result of "bad trade." It is true, but it is not the only cause. It is the result of a social condition, even in times of "good trade."

Labour Needed

So long as one can dine at the most luxurious of restaurants it is difficult to believe that men cannot get work if they want it, especially if one considers that the demand for work is so great as to give them a fair chance.

No members of the building trades need really be unemployed, so far as the need for their labor goes. A large proportion of our people are housed, but the demand for the services of all workmen is not the same.

Therefore, real need for such labor is obvious. If it is equally noticeable that the laborer and householder are unemployed when there are 12 million children in London alone going to school in a poorly heated condition.

Obviously, then, there is urgent demand for the services of all workmen, but the spreading power to make that demand effective is lacking by the very classes that could most easily make it.

Wrong lines are not in the number affected, but in the fact that even a single willing worker can be deprived from employment while land, machinery and tools are lying idle and others are in urgent need of the things he is able to produce.

This evil is an inevitable result of land and capital being used to enable a few individuals to live at the expense of the many.

Those holding the belief that unemployment is not an individual state, but a social condition, a slough of despond, into which individuals are passively long pushed. Personal conditions may decide which of two individuals shall be employed, but it does not decide how many shall be unemployed.

Indolence and vice are found in all classes, as much among the rich, if not more, as the poor. At least there is more excuse for the latter, who often drift into bad habits as the result of irregular work, low wages and miserable surroundings, which breed in them a fatalism and despair.

Many regard unemployment as solely the result of "bad trade." It is true, but it is not the only cause. It is the result of a social condition, even in times of "good trade."

Indolence and vice are found in all classes, as much among the rich, if not more, as the poor. At least there is more excuse for the latter, who often drift into bad habits as the result of irregular work, low wages and miserable surroundings, which breed in them a fatalism and despair.

Many regard unemployment as solely the result of "bad trade." It is true, but it is not the only cause. It is the result of a social condition, even in times of "good trade."

Labour Needed

So long as one can dine at the most luxurious of restaurants it is difficult to believe that men cannot get work if they want it, especially if one considers that the demand for work is so great as to give them a fair chance.

No members of the building trades need really be unemployed, so far as the need for their labor goes. A large proportion of our people are housed, but the demand for the services of all workmen is not the same.

Therefore, real need for such labor is obvious. If it is equally noticeable that the laborer and householder are unemployed when there are 12 million children in London alone going to school in a poorly heated condition.

Obviously, then, there is urgent demand for the services of all workmen, but the spreading power to make that demand effective is lacking by the very classes that could most easily make it.

Wrong lines are not in the number affected, but in the fact that even a single willing worker can be deprived from employment while land, machinery and tools are lying idle and others are in urgent need of the things he is able to produce.

This evil is an inevitable result of land and capital being used to enable a few individuals to live at the expense of the many.

FRANCES EVELYN, COUNTESS OF WARWICK

English noblewoman who is an ardent Socialist. She made many political addresses in the recent parliamentary campaign in support of labor candidates.

Without Love All the Money in the World Is Useless

By Beatrice Fairfax

THIS country is money mad—men, women, children, even the babies, are all possessed of the one idea—money.

When a girl is "keeping company" with a young man her chief thought is "How much money has he, and how much will he spend on me?"

Money really expended can do a great deal of good, but it is not for the money the greatest thing in the world.

It would be wise to devote our energies to operating on the weaknesses of a man's character than on the size of his pocketbook.

This idea of measuring a man's worth by the amount of money he spends on you is all wrong.

And if you are a woman who hopes to get on and make a success of herself will never amount to anything if he spends every cent he owns on pleasure.

A girl's influence over the man who loves her is great.

If she continually urges him to spend money he will soon grow to think that money-making is the most important thing on earth, as he and that only can he hope to hold her affection.

And much better use her influence in urging him to be sober and industrious.

If he has both those qualities he will always be able to make a comfortable living.

And when the young wife keeps forever at her husband's work she will help him to make money, and thus be both a help and a money-making machine.

For the woman who drives a man toward their money madness.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

Love is the only thing that will help a man to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife. It will help him to be a man before his wife.

GIRLS, HAVE YOU SEEN THESE SPRING NOVELTIES?

READY-TO-WEAR—suits, blouses, hats, gloves, shoes, etc. in the latest styles. These are the spring novelties that will make you the envy of all your friends.

READY-TO-WEAR—suits, blouses, hats, gloves, shoes, etc. in the latest styles. These are the spring novelties that will make you the envy of all your friends.

READY-TO-WEAR—suits, blouses, hats, gloves, shoes, etc. in the latest styles. These are the spring novelties that will make you the envy of all your friends.

READY-TO-WEAR—suits, blouses, hats, gloves, shoes, etc. in the latest styles. These are the spring novelties that will make you the envy of all your friends.

THE TRAINED NURSE MUST HAVE TACT

It is not enough to be a nurse, one must also have tact. A nurse who lacks tact will never be able to do her duty properly.

It is not enough to be a nurse, one must also have tact. A nurse who lacks tact will never be able to do her duty properly.

It is not enough to be a nurse, one must also have tact. A nurse who lacks tact will never be able to do her duty properly.

It is not enough to be a nurse, one must also have tact. A nurse who lacks tact will never be able to do her duty properly.

How to Keep Out of Lebt and Be Thrifty

ALTHOUGH the many leavings which people who are not so liberal are left to the mercy of eating a dinner or wearing clothes which they cannot pay for, it is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt. It is not the only way to keep out of debt.

HEARST'S BOSTON AMERICAN

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST

80 AND 82 REMOND ST., BOSTON, APR. 2, 1906

You Can't Afford to "Go to Sleep," Mr. Citizen

It Has Never Ceased to Be True That
"Eternal Vigilance Is the Price of Liberty"

When a Senator asked Mr. Chamberlain if he did not think the people could afford to go to sleep NOW and trust the Gas and Electric Light Commissioners to look after their interests, Mr. Chamberlain said that he had merely used a figure of speech.

Mr. Everett W. Burdett, an attorney for the Electric Lighting Trust, appeared in favor of Mr. Chamberlain's bill. He warmly protested against the suggestion of a gentleman from Winchester that the bill might be all right provided ALL THREE MEMBERS OF THE GAS COMMISSION had to pass affirmatively upon the questions involved in it.

We do not purpose at this moment to discuss the particular bill for which Mr. Chamberlain appeared. That it purported to be an act to prevent stock-watering, and ACTUALLY WAS A BILL TO MAKE EASIER THE MERGER OF GREAT LIGHTING CORPORATIONS, is quite a serious matter, but it is hardly conceivable that the committee will report any such legislation, so that it doesn't appear to be necessary to discuss that here and now.

What we want to say a word about is Mr. Chamberlain's idea that, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, the people of Massachusetts can afford to "go to sleep."

Mr. Chamberlain is an able lawyer. He is the chairman of the legislative committee of the State Board of Trade. He is very safe, sane and "conservative," and violently opposed to all "radicalism" and sensationalism. You will perhaps remember him best as the chairman of the board governing the Taunton Insane Asylum which, being under charges about a year ago, investigated Judge FRIZZELL, and issued a very conservative report in which it found for the defense.

But Mr. Chamberlain, when he says the people could afford to "go to sleep," after the passage of the merger act which he and Mr. Burdett and the lighting corporations would like to have, is somewhat mistaken. It is unfortunately a fact that the people DO go to sleep too frequently.

They were asleep when the Lighting Trust arranged to have passed the present act dealing with municipal ownership, which George W. Anderson, fully as conservative a lawyer as Mr. Chamberlain, says is the most outrageous law he ever saw.

They were awakened only in time, a year ago, to prevent their Gas Commission from allowing a stock watering steal of millions of dollars in the reorganization of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company.

They were asleep—carelessly and artistically CLEVERFORMED—a week ago, when a minority of the Senate killed the Overtime Bill.

These instances—and a hundred more could be produced—prove the converse of Mr. Chamberlain's statement.

Perhaps Mr. Chamberlain only meant it figuratively. Remembering with what vehemence Mr. Burdett protested against placing in the bill a provision that would oblige such schemes as might be arranged by the trusts to have the sanction of ALL the Gas Commissioners—there is ONE member of the board, you know, in which the public has confidence—it would appear that he did not mean it to be taken in its literal sense.

Nevertheless, it was what good "conservatives" should regard as a "dangerous utterance," for it was THE HEIGHT OF RADICALISM. Our forefathers in the government preached unceasingly the gospel of NEVER GOING TO SLEEP. Any suggestion to the contrary cannot be argued as conservative, even by those prominent "conservatives" whose definition of "radicalism" is "any movement which prevents us from appropriating funds."

By his action in attempting to secure the passage of this merger bill, disguised as an attempt to prevent stock watering, Mr. Chamberlain has shown us a moral in direct opposition to his spoken "figure of speech." It is an old moral. A famous Irishman said it in Dublin a century and a half ago. A famous American repeated it in this country a few years later. They said:

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."
In other words, "DON'T GO TO SLEEP."

Did the Young Christians Hurt the Actor's Feelings?

Too Bad; So Cheer Up, It Used to Be Worse

Some young gentlemen in a Young Men's Christian Association in Pittsburgh refuse to admit to their solemn councils another young gentleman BECAUSE THE LATTER WAS AN ACTOR. This has been much talked about; it has even been wept over in some of the newspapers and in some of the actors' clubs.

Really, the actors should cheer up, instead of weeping. They should recognize in this action of the Young Men's Christian Association only an interesting survival of an old stupidity.

They should be very glad that what was once a serious matter has, in the course of evolution and of common sense, dwindled down to a harmless Pittsburgh joke.

If the little gentlemen of the Young Men's Christian Association in Pittsburgh don't want an actor among them, that is THEIR business; it can't do much harm to the actor or anybody else.

The thing to be grateful for is this: There was a time when Christian young men could do very disagreeable things to actors, and the latter had no redress. In Shakespeare's day that great genius was compelled to announce himself and his fellow-players as "the servants of Lord So-and-so." An actor was considered too disreputable and unfit to be at large on his own account. He must give his performance as the SERVANT of some respectable and responsible person.

In France the actor and actress were considered so disreputable that the proper thing was to bury their dead bodies at a cross-road, like a dead cat or horse. They could not lie in a respectable graveyard.

They tried it once too often when they proposed to bury in that way a young actress in whom Voltaire was interested. Voltaire wrote and did some things that hurt very seriously the feelings of those early predecessors of the Pittsburgh young Christians. Even to this day some of them remember none too kindly the plain truths which Voltaire uttered in regard to the equal rights of men—EVEN OF ACTORS.

Such events as that in Pittsburgh are interesting and valuable; they give us a sort of standard by which to judge the progress that has been made. It is great progress, indeed, for the actor to have got all of his rights in this world except the not very important right of joining in the hilarious frolics of the Young Men's Christian Association in Pittsburgh, Pa.

When the whole of humanity shall have all of its rights, and practically everything that it wants except a ticket of admission to the Young Men's Christian Association in Pittsburgh, the world will be doing pretty well.

MONOPOLY LODGE ENTERTAINMENTS

Copyright, 1906, by American Journal-Examiner

